

THERAPEUTIC SERVICES OFFERS SUPERVISION

Tennessee licensure credit available for MFT's

In an ongoing effort to share skills and education with our community, Harmony's Therapeutic Services is now offering supervision, via Kelsie McGlothlin, LMFT, to clinicians who want to deepen their clinical skills, particularly in trauma treatment for individuals and families.

FOR WHO:

- Post-graduate clinicians seeking LMFT licensure in Tennessee (supervision hours can count toward licensure).
- LPC's, social workers, psychologists seeking to deepen their understanding of trauma treatment in the family system.

*Disclaimer: licensure credit hours are only offered to MFT's seeking licensure at this time. Other clinicians would not be able to use these supervision hours toward licensure in Tennessee.

ABOUT KELSIE:

Kelsie is a licensed marriage and family therapist based in Knoxville, TN. She graduated from Richmond Graduate University in 2018 with a master's in marriage and family therapy and has been licensed since 2020. Kelsie is an AAMFT-approved supervisor candidate under the mentorship of Michelle Shelley, LMFT, who is an AAMFT-approved supervisor in Chattanooga, TN. Kelsie's clinical training and experience includes:

- Certification in the NeuroSequential Model of Therapeutics (NMT)
- Training in Somatic and Attachment EMDR
- Training in Parent Child Interaction Therapy (PCIT)
- Training in Internal Family Systems/ neurobiology of parts work
- 6-plus years of complex and developmental trauma treatment with both children and adults
- Nearly 5 years of experience working clinically with adoptive families, both private and state adoptions
