

Rainbow Family Camp

For LGBTQ+ and questioning children and youth and their families to have a fun and affirming place to connect with others.

Campers will experience a mixture of traditional camp activities (such as equine, climbing tower, nature and more) in addition to activities focused more on exploring and celebrating each camper's unique identity.

Rainbow Camps are privately funded.

Please contact connect@harmonyfamilycenter.org for more information, camper applications, and RSVPs